CLASSIC MOVIE STARS SALUTE UNITED WAY
United Way & Main Street Landing Reunite for the Popular Free Community Film Series!

October 31, 2014 (Burlington, VT) Main Street Landing and United Way of Chittenden County are reuniting in November as part of the popular weekly movie series which brings great classic cinema to the Burlington area while promoting the work of local nonprofits. The free series was launched by Main Street Landing two years ago as a way to provide community awareness and a fundraising platform for nonprofits while offering the Burlington community free classic films presented on the big screen.

The November United Way of Chittenden County series starts on Tuesday, November 4th, with Rope, and continues the next three Tuesdays with: Spartacus on Tuesday, November 11th, Manhattan Melodrama on Tuesday, November 18th and Hairspray Tuesday, November 25th. In addition, the audience will experience an exclusive showing of United Way's 2014 LIVE UNITED video. All shows start at 7pm and will be projected on the Main Street Landing's Film House 25 foot screen, in Dolby Digital 12 Speaker Surround Sound.

About United Way of Chittenden County:

United Way of Chittenden County unites our whole community to solve complex problems and harness the power of people to create a stronger Chittenden County. United Way convenes advocates, organizations and institutions to address the community's most pressing issues, focusing on the building blocks of a vibrant community: Education, Income and Health. The problems facing our community are complex; they are issues that no single organization or individual alone can solve – real change is possible when nonprofit, public and private sectors work together. United Way has the networks, partnerships and strategic initiatives to improve the lives of our family, friends and neighbors.
