— CAPACITY BUILDING & BACKBONE SUPPORT

By providing backbone support and doing the work of convening and facilitating, we enable organizations to collaborate for greater impact. We are currently playing this role for the Mental Health Initiative and the Northwest Vermont Prevention Network.

— NONPROFIT & ISSUE-BASED ADVOCACY

- Common Good Vermont raises the voice of Vermont's nonprofit sector by advocating on behalf of Vermont nonprofits throughout the legislative session at the state and federal level.
- United Way staff and volunteers provide education and engagement opportunities to help donors, businesses, policymakers and community leaders better understand – and respond to – our community's greatest needs.

— STORYTELLING & SHARING THE MIC

We often highlight the successes and challenges of community partners. We are always interested in telling local stories related to our 5 Key Strategies and supporting a thriving nonprofit sector.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

United Way of Northwest Vermont exists at the intersection of nonprofits, government, businesses, and our community. We are happy to leverage our network of staff, volunteers, and partners to help you make connections and access resources that enable you to make a greater impact.

COMMUNITY FUNDING

Our portfolio of funded partners addresses our 5 Key Strategies and is reviewed each year by a group of citizen volunteers who help us decide how best to invest these resources.

United Way of Northwest Vermont is also a funder of Vermont 2-1-1, a 24/7 statewide referral help line, annually. Vermont 2-1-1 connects callers to a wide range of available human services like food, shelter, healthcare and much more.
